

SALISBURY WARNS ENTIRE WORLD

Hands Off South Africa
Loudly Proclaims the British Premier.

FORMAL NOTICE LATER

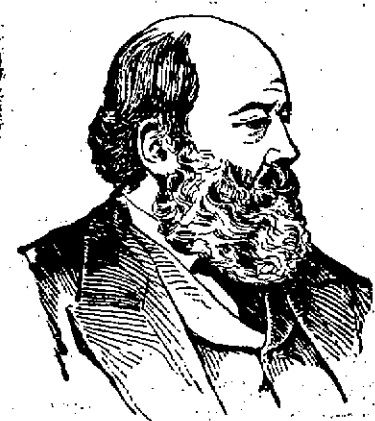

No Question But the Annexation of Transvaal Will Soon Follow.

ENGLAND IS ON HER DIGNITY

London, December 7.—Premier Salisbury has again served official notice upon the world that Great Britain will not form with her policy in South Africa.

This policy, he adds in words that admit of no double construction, has for its ultimate object the extinction of the last thread of independence in either the Transvaal or the Free State.

In this line he has gone further than ever before. Absolute submission in all sessions of the conquered territory he says, must precede even the mildest kind of self government, which latter, he adds, "may be delayed for generations."

LORD SALISBURY, ENGLAND'S PREMIER.

Annexation Notice to Follow.
These pronouncements uttered by the premier during yesterday's debate in the house of lords on the queen's speech, are regarded in official circles as a forerunner of formal notification to the nations of the world that Great Britain has annexed the Boer lands. In cabinet circles it is now believed President Kruger is cooped up in Holland and that this notice of annexation, delayed hitherto out of consideration for France, can now be served without danger of turmoil in any country.

Victory for Uncle Sam.
Regarding China the premier all but admitted that the United States has gained a great diplomatic victory. He told parliament that the government was in receipt of late information tending to show that the concert of powers was near an agreement. As it is conceded here that the authorities at Washington have remained steadfast in their opposition to the drastic Anglo-German program, the logical deduction seems to be that Great Britain and Germany have abandoned their position.

CONFISCATES 10,000 PICTURES

Anthony Comstock Arrests Proprietor of New York Printing Firm.

New York, Dec. 6.—While a big Broadway crowd watched the proceedings last evening a patrol wagon carted away 10,000 films and negatives of the American Electroscopic company as well as the proprietor, John J. Alexandra of Brooklyn. It was the second time he had been arrested during the day, the federal authorities having first arrested him. He was taken into custody at the instance of Anthony Comstock. Many of the 10,000 films and negatives are alleged to be of an indecent character. The federal authorities arrested Alexandra during the day on a charge of sending improper matter through the mails. He was taken before Commissioner Shields, where he waived examination, and he was held in $1,000 bail, which he immediately furnished.

BRYANT'S CALL OUT FOR DECEMBER 13

REPUBLICAN STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE TO MEET.

Mr. La Follette Files His Election Account—Party Organizations Also Record Their Statements—The Republicans Spent the Sum of $29,337.34 in State.

Milwaukee, Dec. 7.—General George E. Bryant, chairman of the republican state central committee, yesterday called a meeting of the committee for next Thursday, Dec. 13. Secretary Zeno M. Host of the committee received a letter last evening instructing him to issue the formal notice. The letter stated that at 10 o'clock a meeting would be held of the executive committee and Treasurer Dwight T. Parker at the office of Secretary Host on Second street to check up the affairs of the committee.

Election Expenses Filed.
The time for filing accountings of campaign expenses expired yesterday. While the most of the candidates filed their accountings with the register of deeds or county clerk, there are a few who have not and who have therefore made themselves liable under the corrupt practice law. All of the committees, except the social democrats, have filed their reports.

Treasurer Dwight T. Parker of the republican state central committee has filed a statement of the committee's expenses as follows:

Mr. La Follette's Expenses.
The most interesting statement was that of Gov. Elect La Follette, who reports that his entire expenses were $5,095.92. The items of the statement as filed at Madison were as follows:
To expenses of canvassers in railroad fare, hotel bills and livery hire throughout the preliminary and election contest, $1,450; to telegraph bills, $49.70; to express and baggage bills, $43.70; to telephone bills, $78.65; to printing and stationery bills, $1,079.27; to state central committee, $500; to office help, typewriting and expenses incident thereto, $299.92; to cigars, $126. Total, $5,095.92.

The prohibition state central committee's report was filed with the register of deeds yesterday and shows that $1,108.74 was spent in the campaign for temperance. The receipts of the committee were $1,119.01, leaving a balance of $10.27 on hand.

HOUSE IS AGAINST THE ARMY CANTEEN

Bars Selling of Intoxicants to Soldiers Upon Military Reserves.

VICTORY FOR W. C. T. U.

The Amended Bill is Passed by a Decisive Vote on Party Lines.

GREAT JOY AMONG THE WOMEN

Washington, Dec. 7.—Down went the army canteen, and the 2,000 W. C. T. U. women now in Washington are celebrating their great victory. Evidently the women have not swarmed in the corridors of the capitol for nothing. Their raid in force upon the halls of congress has brought them a great and unexpected triumph.

Before passing the army reorganization bill yesterday afternoon the house of representatives, by a vote of 159 to 51, placed in it an amendment which absolutely prohibits the sale of intoxicating liquors by anyone to soldiers of the United States upon government premises or ships.

Leaves No Loophole.
There is no doubt about the prospective law this time, no loopholes through which the lawyers can crawl. If the senate agrees with the house and keeps the amendment in the bill the canteen is gone. No matter what army officers, army chaplains, the secretary of war, the adjutant general, the attorney general and the president himself may think of the canteen, the canteen has to go if this amendment stands. This is the emphatic, clear-cut clause, which sounds the death knell of the canteen:

"The sale of or dealing in beer, wine or any intoxicating drinks as a beverage by any person in any post, exchange or canteen; or transport, or upon any premises used for military purposes by the United States is hereby prohibited, and the secretary of war is hereby directed to carry the provisions of this section into full force and effect."

Applause from Women.
When the vote on this amendment was announced the W. C. T. U. women in the galleries broke into applause. Some of them became so excited that it was with difficulty that they were restrained from continuing their demonstrations of joy, which were in violation of the rules of the house.

Representative Bowersock of Kansas, the original anti-canteen statesman of the house, at once grabbed his hat and coat, jumped into a carriage and drove to the Lafayette theater where the W. C. T. U. was in national convention. The great audience went wild when he mounted the stage and told them the glad news. For half an hour it was impossible to do any business. Mr. Bowersock was the hero of the occasion.

The man who won the victory for the women however was Mr. Littlefield of Maine. He offered the amendment as a substitute for section 40 and made a speech in its favor.

Enthusiasm is Aroused.
Though he had but a few minutes the big man from Maine aroused much enthusiasm upon the floor and in the galleries. He said that he had used the Bowersock bill, introduced at the last session of congress as a model, but had seen fit to make the amendment less drastic in effect.

SUSTAINED A SEVERE FALL.

Mrs. Williams Injured While Crossing Milwaukee Street Bridge.

Mrs. Williams, a middle-aged woman residing in the First ward, sustained a severe fall on the Milwaukee street bridge last evening about seven o'clock. She was crossing the bridge and when in front of the Cash Tea store stepped off the end of the sidewalk when there is a drop of about eight inches between the city sidewalk and the walk in front of the tea store.

The misstep caused Mrs. Williams to fall heavily to the sidewalk her head striking against the end of the planks and for a few minutes her senses were badly scattered. Passers-by hurried to her assistance and she was soon able to continue on her way home. She had a bump over her eye as large as a hen's egg, but was not otherwise injured. The place where she fell is a dangerous one in slippery weather and should be remedied in some way.

TWO MEN KILLED IN WRECK.

Northern Pacific Passenger Train Is Derailed in Montana.

Butte, Mont., Dec. 7.—The east-bound Northern Pacific overland passenger train due in Butte at 11:55 p. m. last night was derailed at a siding half a mile east of Rooker. Two men were instantly killed. Engineer Nat Kellam was severely scalded and Fireman Ole Olson was slightly injured. Aside from a severe shaking up no passengers were injured. A rail had been misplaced or broken by the train which passed that point a short time before, as torpedoes had been placed on the track as a signal of danger. These torpedoes exploded, but the train could not be checked in time. The men killed were stealing a ride on the trucks forward of the baggage car. One was completely buried under the debris of the wrecked car. The other man was identified as M. J. Connell, a member of the Wallace, Idaho, Eagles.

TO KEEP UP THE WAR ON CAPITAL

Gompers Sounds Keynote at Session of Federation of Labor.

MANY UNIONS FORMED

Growth of the American Organization Reported to Be Phenomena

STRIKES A NEEDED WEAPON

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 7.—The twentieth annual convention of the American Federation of Labor opened in Music hall. The American flag was much in evidence in the way of decorative effect. When the president's gavel sounded the opening of the first session 217 delegates took their seats, and the hum of conversation which for the preceding half hour had filled the hall subsided, and the convention was on. Among the delegates present were representatives of the British trades union congress and the Canadian trades and labor congress, three women delegates, and two colored. President Gompers introduced William

SAMUEL GOMPERS.

M. Higgins, editor of the Irish-American of Louisville, who delivered the address of welcome to which President Gompers replied. Following President Gompers' address Thomas Tracey of Boston, chairman of the committee on credentials, presented the report of that committee, substantially as follows: The committee had examined the credentials of 205 delegates, representing sixty-one national and international unions, ten state branches, forty-two central labor unions, fifty-nine local trades unions, and three foreign federations. The report was unanimously adopted, and the delegates seated.

Address of the President.
President Gompers then began his annual address, saying in substance: "The last year has witnessed a most remarkable growth in organization among the workers, who have realized that there is no protection for their interests or hope for justice and freedom in the future, unless it results from the unity of the wage working masses. While the growth is gratifying, there is another feature connected with it which is even a greater source of congratulation. The workers have organized in the unions of their trades and callings; new unions have been formed and several national unions created from heretofore scattered and isolated locals, and thus the stability of the labor movement has been more nearly insured."

"We have issued direct from the American Federation of Labor during the last year 849 charters—to national and international unions, 14; state federations of labor, 5; city central labor unions, 96; local trade unions (having no national), 484; federal labor unions, 260. There were issued during the year from national and international unions and the American Federation of Labor (direct) charters to the following: Newly formed unions, 3,375; charters surrendered, or unions disbanded, 248; leaving a net increase of local unions for the year of 3,027 and a gain in membership of 294,329."

Against Compulsory Arbitration.
While favoring arbitration, Mr. Gompers said he was opposed to the coercive policy of compulsory arbitration. In the nature of the case, he contended, arbitration must be voluntary to be effective. He continued: "It is our aim to avoid strikes, but I trust that the day will never come when the workers of our country will have so far lost their manhood and independence as to refuse to strike, regardless of the provocation, or to surrender their right to strike."

USE A COFFIN BOX TO SHIP GAME IN

One of the Latest Schemes for Evading the Law and Shipping Game Out of the State.

Using a coffin box to ship game in is one of the latest schemes for evading the game laws and shipping deer out of the state. It was tried by a Chippewa Falls man recently but did not prove a success. He purchased two deer from two dealers and had a coffin box made and packed the deer in it, labelled it "Ropes" and shipped it to a party in Chicago.

The game warden noticed the box and thought that it might contain game on account of some rumors that he had heard around the town concerning a proposed shipment. He boarded the next train and arrived in Chicago in time to seize the box. On opening it he found that it contained the carcasses of the two deer.

The man who shipped the deer was notified of the seizure by telegram and shipped out before he could be arrested. This is only one of the dozens of tricks practiced by the market hunters to get their game out of the state during the close season.

CHRISTMAS WARES.

TAKING THE BUSY HOLIDAY SEASON
BY THE FORELOCK.

Presents Easily Made by Art Amateurs—Chasing Dish Books and Menu Lists—A Clever Idea Apropos of the Camera Friend.

The wise woman, who remembers the rush and nerve pulling of last year's December, will begin work now on Christmas gifts and during fall

Evenings will add many a completed bit of fancy work to her store of holiday presents. Let us suppose you have the faculty of using water colors and that you can print neatly, then for ideas suggests a provident woman who takes Christmas by the forelock as follows in Good Housekeeping:

Try a chasing dish book, with covers cut from the thin mat board, and a score of leaves of fine writing paper tied in with a silk cord. Let the decoration be something that suggests good things to eat—a waiter with his white apron and lavish expanse of shirt front, a scampering rabbit, suggestive of the dish we always associate with a chasing dish, or a pretty maid stirring some strange concoction over the blazing alcohol. Here are a few home-spun stanzas suitable for these pretty books:

I'm not so many, I confess,
Yet when I chance to sup
On lobster a la Newburg chased,
Why, then I double up.

These verses will fit almost any sort of decoration.

When with mustard, cheese and beer
I patiently do juggle,
Grim Indigestion doth appear,
Triumphant from the struggle.

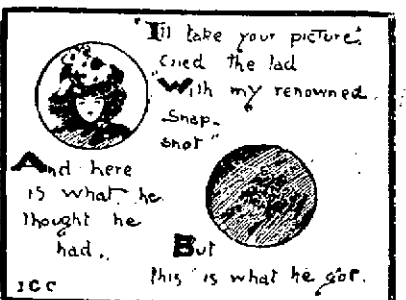

Chasing dish books may be made any size from neat brochures 5 by 3 inches to larger ones with the dignity of a cook-book. The same size and the same style of designs may be used for another purpose with only a change of title—that of "autograph recipes." These little books have been the fad of the summer. Every woman at a seashore hotel seemed to possess one, and they went the rounds among summer acquaintances with a plea for "your favorite recipe." They are more than a fad; they are a genuine aid to the good housewife, a gathering of other women's culinary wisdom.

Menu lists are another useful gift. Take a piece of thin mat board or heavy water color paper of smooth finish, cut it about 9 by 6 and tie in with silk cord through holes punched at the top six pieces of white card. At the top of each card put in pretty lettering "Breakfast," "Luncheon," "Dinner," and write on them favorite dishes of these meals. A glance at them will save sometimes ten minutes' hard thinking.

With the sketch of a woman puzzling over a menu list comes as cover decoration:

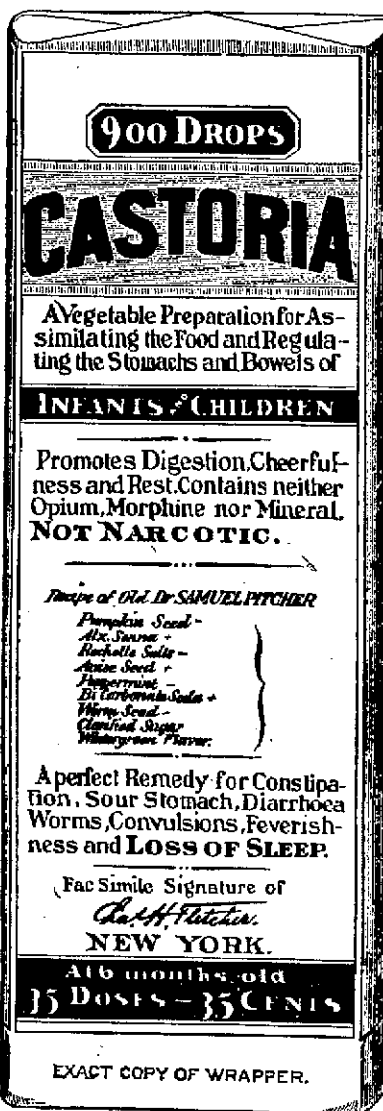

What shall I have for dinner?
What shall I have for tea?
An omelet, a chop or two
Or a savory fricassee?
Dear, how I wish that nature,
When she made her mighty plan,
Hedn't given the task to a woman
To care for a hungry man!

For the friend who carries a camera wherever he goes make a snap shot book with covers of the mat board, on which you have painted a bright bit of landscape or marine view and such a legend as "Caught by a Camera," "Vacation Day Snap Shots" or "Kodak Finds." If your friend revels in blue-prints, make covers of white water color paper and decorate the front with a bit of marine done in cobalt and indigo, then add the title, "Some Blue Prints." It is a good idea before designing snap shot books to discover the size of pictures taken by your friend's camera, then make the book to fit them. Two prints may go on each page, or one, then the dozen cards for mounts tied into each book would be as large as a regular card mount. The same style of book may be adapted for a book for baby's pictures, using instead of landscape or marine a cute baby figure or a cunning little face shaded by the frills of a white cap. Of all the books, however, devoted to the kodak fad probably the most attractive will be the one of which a sketch is given, where you see what he really got and what he thought he had.

Milk is a Food.
Milk is a food far more than a drink, and if you teach the child to look on it as a drink only it will overload its stomach by drinking it at every meal, and you will be left wondering whence the dyspepsia, which spoils its young life, can possibly have arisen.

NATIONAL INDEMNITY.

It is reported that Turkey proposes to pay the claim of $100,000 held against her by the United States as indemnity for the destruction of missionary property, by ordering a warship from builders in this country, and paying $100,000 more than it is worth, so that the amount may be paid over to our government to liquidate the Turkish debt.

If the report is true, and the United States accepts the proposition, it is an exhibition of weakness and loss of dignity that is a disgrace to the nation.

If the claim is just, and a claim has been made for it, there is only one honorable way to settle it, and that is to insist on the payment in a business-like way.

The money loss is insignificant, as compared with the loss of reputation and national manhood. Better an apology with a spirit that recognizes obligation than any kind of a financial settlement under cover.

The government had no right to make a demand on Turkey unless she was prepared to compel payment or honorable settlement. War is never desirable, and should be averted when possible, but Turkey or any other nation should be given to understand that legal claims cannot be settled in an illegal manner.

If American missionaries in Turkey are the cause of humiliating this government, through their inability to protect themselves, rather than sacrifice the honor of the nation, they had better abandon the field. A conscientious Mohammedan is just as sure of heaven as a Christian on American soil, and while the Christian religion is a great civilizer under certain conditions, it has but little to show as results along this line in either Turkey or China.

To be sure the Americans in Turkey are open to conviction and not infrequently to conversion. But about the time they espouse the new faith they are massacred or persecuted beyond endurance.

The disciples of Mohammed or Confucius are more loyal to their faith than the disciples of Christ, because every last one of them will die for it if necessary.

This is not only true concerning the Mohammedan, but he considers it a great honor to die in honor of his religious faith. The time will come when the bright light of Christian civilization will light up these dark lands and show the people a better way to live than they now practice, but it will come with the march of commercial and Christian progress hand in hand, in which this fair land should lead, but she has taken a step backward when a legitimate national claim is settled in disguise, and becomes the legitimate laughing stock of other nations.

EVIDENCES OF PROSPERITY.

While prosperity is the watchword in all parts of the country, and the press is daily recording enterprises of great magnitude, as the result of cheap money and an abundance of it, the tendency is to overlook evidences of the same conditions nearer home.

Anyone who has wandered about the city lately with eyes open, must be convinced that the general prosperity that is visiting the country at large is not slighting the locality in which every Janesville man is interested. New factory buildings and warehouses are springing into existence as if by magic, new houses are building in every ward, business men wear a contented smile, labor is active and everything indicates good times.

This is the age of opportunity and every energetic man owes it to himself to improve it. A trip to Klondike is not necessary to gather gold, or to South Africa to pick up diamonds. Both may be found in our own door yard.

The growth of Janesville is a healthy growth. There is no boom about it, and no bonus is being asked or paid. Capital has discovered that business is here to be had for the asking, and the investment is liberal.

There is every reason why the city should be the center of the Wisconsin tobacco growing industry. Railroad facilities are ample, the train service as good as can be found anywhere, hotel accommodations are first-class, the banking facilities abundant for all legitimate business, and a spirit of enterprise is everywhere apparent.

The Bower City has waked up and will continue to be very much alive for some time to come.

The time to make hay is in sunny weather, and both the crop and weather are promising.

BEER AND TOBACCO.

If there are any two items on the revenue tax list that are luxuries, pure and simple, they are beer and tobacco.

co. If there are any classes of citizens that should be compelled to pay a revenue tax, the consumers of these luxuries are in the front rank of these classes.

One of the first acts of a republican congress contemplates a reduction of $40,000,000 on war taxes, and the list is headed with about $10,000,000 on beer, and about $4,000,000 on tobacco. If the report of the committee is adopted and the schedule becomes a law, the congress will be held responsible before the court of public opinion.

A republican congress cannot afford to make its bow to the public over a beer mug or a clay pipe, especially in face of the fact that these seductive influences were in bad odor during the campaign. Reputation is next to character in point of value, and the congressional public servant has some reputation at stake.

The wisest thing that congress can do with the report of the committee is to send it back for revision or pigeon hole it, until they get a letter from home.

The law-makers at Madison are asked to legislate against football in the state. Let Phil King arrange for a game the day the vote is to be taken, and see how many solons are left in the capitol to vote. Why not prohibit railroads running trains, because there are accidents, or discourage yachting because there are storms? Football is no more dangerous than any other sport, when we consider the number of men who engage in it every year.

Attention is again attracted to our military school at West Point. A young man has lost his life to satisfy his sense of pleasure at the sight of suffering. Why do human beings love to kill, for the mere pleasure of witnessing agonies of pain and suffering? Why will college boys maim and kill, "just for fun"? We have Chinese cruelties inside the walls of our centers of education and enlightenment.

The ship subsidy bill, before the senate now, promises to be a great stimulus to our deplorable merchant marine. The time was when our commerce and that of Great Britain was largely carried on in American boats; now conditions are reversed. Our expansion demands that the merchant marine be subsidized to such an extent as to keep freight charges at home.

The democrats at Washington are planning to sidetrack legislation. They are adept at this kind of business, having sidetracked William Jennings twice, and free silver once. There are some things the democrats can do to perfection, and save others the necessity.

Why not send "Duke Bobs" after the empress of China? If she was out of the way, trouble in the Orient would cease.

It is difficult to think of Senator Hanna as "sub rosa" in anything, but he got there in the senate last Tuesday.

Dr. Parkhurst's ideal paper will have to be subsidized before it will be financially practicable.

Water of the purest kind falls in abundance from heaven on the W. C. T. U. delegates in Washington.

MASK BALL BY UNIQUE CLUB.

Delightful Affair Held at Assembly Hall Last Evening.

The mask ball given by the Unique club at assembly hall last evening was largely attended. About two hundred maskers were on the floor and almost every character imaginable was represented. Negroes and clowns predominated, but some very handsome and unique costumes were worn. The costume worn by Will Felony of Rockford was deserving of special mention. Gale Nicholson delighted the audience with all the latest Coon steps and led the grand march.

The Unique club can certainly feel proud of the way in which the party went off. The immense crowd on the floor was faultlessly handled by E. E. Clemons, Philip Ohlweiler, Chas. Young, Ed. Pawcett, Maurice Dalton and Alfred Jerg.

FORTY LADIES ENTERTAINED.

Reception at the Home of Mrs. W. P. Sayles, 360 Court Street.

About forty ladies were entertained yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Wm. P. Sayles, 360 Court street. Guests commenced to arrive at 2:30 and by 3 all were in their places. The time was devoted to six-handed euchre and two hours were spent in this pleasant pastime. An agreeable innovation was a set of original score cards designed for the occasion and presented to the hostess.

The first prize, a handkerchief in monition lace, was awarded to Mrs. Frank Echlin; the second, a pin tray of cameo ware, was won by Mrs. James Fiffeld. The refreshments were substantial and delicious and faultlessly served. Red carnations and ferns were used in the decorations and the house presented a gala aspect. Mrs. Sayles gives a luncheon one day next week and is planning for two more social, entertainments after Christmas.

Suspect Charles Hughes.

Charles Hughes, one of the three men arrested some time ago by Marshall Cal Broughton of Evansville and who succeeded in making his escape from Under Sheriff Hurst of Madison at Madison, while Hurst was taking him to Portage and afterwards arrested at Hudson, Wis., is supposed to be one of the men wanted for the murder of Officer Perry Gates of LaCrosse. Under Sheriff Hurst says that if the LaCrosse police think Hughes is in any way connected with the Gates murder he is willing to release any claim upon the prisoner. Hurst is every likely thinking about the reward of $800 for the capture of the right person.

Boy's Hand Is Injured.

Frank Fathers, the son of William Fathers, met with a painful accident this morning while operating a punching machine at the Kent Corn Planter works, 266 North Main street. In some manner his hand was drawn in under the blade of the punch and before he could get it out he had lost the two middle fingers and the tip of his little finger. He was taken to Dr. Joe Whiting's office, where the injured members were attended to.

Ladies' Bazaar Netted $200.

The receipts from the fancy bazaar and luncheon conducted on Tuesday by the ladies of the Christ church are in the neighborhood of $200. The promoters are to be congratulated on the financial success of the enterprise and equally so on the attractive manner in which it was carried out.

CANNING FACTORY MAY LOCATE HERE

MEETING OF BUSINESS MEN IN THE COUNCIL CHAMBER.

Establishment of Such a Concern is Thought to Be of Vital Interest to the City and the Rich Farming Country Surrounding—What Such a Factory Means.

A meeting of the representative business men of the city was held at the council chamber this afternoon at three o'clock. The meeting was called for the purpose of hearing what sort of a proposition the city would make to the representatives of the new canning factory to induce them to locate here.

During the last month a number of our citizens have been at work investigating the benefits that could be derived from a canning factory. They visited plants already established and are satisfied that it is of vital importance to our farming interests and would count among its beneficiaries hundreds of unskilled and hitherto unemployed laborers.

People who have not lived in the vicinity, where one of the class proposed for this city is in operation, have no idea of the amount of food that they turn out.

A good sized factory will in a year turn out 500,000 cans of peas, 250,000 cans of corn, 150,000 cans of tomatoes and 100,000 cans of pumpkins and squash and from three to five thousand barrels of sauer kraut. When in operation it gives employment to one hundred people the most of the year and who earn from a dollar to two dollars and fifty cents a day.

Until this industry is established our people can form no idea of the great benefits that the city will derive from it. The canning industry has laid hands on almost every fod of every climate until it has become the veritable hand-maid of nature for the improvement of the race. The citizens of Janesville will do well to use all effort to add this canning plant to our other industries.

THE COMMONS IN A RAGE.

Joseph Chamberlain is the Center of Attack.

ROSEBERY LEADS CENSURE.

Boer and China Wars Furnish the Bone of Contention. The Colonial Secretary, Irritated by Abuse, Calls an Opponent a "Cad."

London, Dec. 7.—The fifteenth parliament of the reign of Queen Victoria opened yesterday. Before the lights went out in the ancient chambers almost every leading politician had spoken. Such fierce, personal animosity and such bitter invective had scarcely ever before marked the proceedings at Westminster. Joseph Chamberlain, secretary of state for the colonies, was the center of the storm. The policy of the empire regarding South Africa and China, the action of the government in causing a dissolution when it did, the conduct of the war against the Boers, and, in fact, all the questions vitally affecting the empire were gravely discussed and explained, but dominating all was the opposition's hatred of the colonial secretary. From Lord Rosebery's veiled allusions in the house of lords, when he assumed what many took to be the practical leadership of the liberal party, to the outspoken comment in the house of commons, criticism of Mr. Chamberlain permeated almost every utterance from the liberal benches. For hours this target of satire and abuse sat with his head on one side, listening intently, unmoved by groans or cheers. Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman shook his head in Mr. Chamberlain's face and declared that a man who published private letters for political purposes (referring to the Clark-Ellis correspondence) would be excluded from the society of all honorable men and ostracized for life had he resorted to such action as a private individual. Arthur J. Balbour, first lord of the treasury, referring to Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman's suave regrets as the departure of George J. Goschen and Sir Mathew White Ridley from the front bench, said he believed that Sir Henry was so generous that he would even find good in Mr. Chamberlain should the latter be removed to another sphere. A liberal shouted: "We draw the line somewhere," and both sides of the house roared with laughter.

Chamberlain Rises in Anger. Once Chamberlain interrupted and leaped to his feet. A thrill went through the house. "It is not so," he declared, and proceeded to deny the allegation that he had said that any seat lost to the government during the recent election was one sold to the Boers. It was nearly 11 o'clock before he rose to reply to the avalanche of attack launched against him. How great a strain he had undergone was evident in the scarcely suppressed excitement of tone on the part of one rarely known to show feeling in the house. He denied that he had ever accused Mr. Ellis of being a traitor. He denied also that he had derided any accusations against his own personal integrity. He declared that the special purpose of the meeting of parliament had been forgotten in an attack upon himself. Irritated beyond control by frequent interruptions and disturbances, he called one of the liberals, amid the excitement, a "cad." The speaker called him to order and Mr. Chamberlain withdrew the epithet, apologizing for its use. After de-

"Go West,"

Ranch it and rough it and you'll soon get rid of that weak chest and that hacking cough. That is what the doctor said to a young married man with a wife and child to care for and a modest salary to support them on. He couldn't go West. Love and duty tied him to his desk in the city. People don't have to travel to cure coughs or strengthen weak lungs. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures obstinate, deep-seated coughs, bronchitis, bleeding of the lungs, weakness, emaciation and other forms of disease which if neglected or unskillfully treated terminate fatally in consumption.

"I will write you what Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has done for me," says George H. Belcher, Esq., of Boston, Pike County, Ky. "Thirteen years ago I was wounded by a ball passing through my lung. I have had a bad cough almost ever since, with shortness of breath, and it was very easy to take cold. The slightest change of weather would cause the cough to be so bad I would have to sit up in bed all night. Could not eat or sleep at times; was all run down, could not work at all. A few months ago I began using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Have not used more than two bottles, and now can eat, sleep, and work, and feel like a new man. I cannot find words to sufficiently recommend Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, or tell the good it has done me."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser in paper covers is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. The book has 1008 pages and over 700 illustrations. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Salisbury Against Independence. Lord Salisbury spoke in regard to South Africa. The premier spoke with great solemnity. He said the Transvaalers, the Free Staters and the world should understand there could be no deviation from the policy of the government already outlined. Anything resembling independence never could be granted. The war must proceed to the inevitable issue. We must let it be felt that no one, by the issue of an insolent and audacious ultimatum, could force the British government to humble itself and abandon its rights. He could never allow that a shred of independence should be left.

HIT BY CASTELLANES.

Sensational Charges Made in Affidavits Answering Trustees.

New York, Dec. 7.—A dispatch to the World from Paris says that sensational allegations are made by the Count and Countess de Castellane in their answering affidavits just completed and to be used in conjunction with the injunction proceedings pending in the supreme court of New York against George J. Edwin, Howard and Helen M. Gould as trustees of the estate of the late Jay Gould.

Count Boni de Castellane and the Countess Anna are intensely indignant that any attempt should be made in the American courts to deprive them of their income from the Gould estate. They retaliate by making counter charges of lack of good faith against Asher Wertheimer, the London dealer in articles of vertu, bric-a-brac and other luxuries, who, seeing no other prospect of being speedily paid the $385,000 he alleges the Castellanes owe him, assigned his claim to Anton J. Ditmar of New York, and thus brought on the present legal complications.

The count and countess ask the court to vacate the injunction proceedings; first, on the ground that Wertheimer's claims are excessive; that the countess really owes nothing and that some of the extraordinarily high-priced antiques for which thousands of Gould dollars were pledged, were not what they were represented to be. In fact, the count and countess intimate a desire to prove that certain mirrors bought for a large sum are not antique. Probably the strangest point in their affidavit is the allegation that their indebtedness to Wertheimer for goods actually supplied does not and never did amount to $385,000. They claim that $120,000 of this big sum is accrued interest, for which they disclaim all responsibility.

Chinamen from Canada.

New York, Dec. 7.—Detectives of the Jersey City police department have arrested two Chinamen in the Pennsylvania station in Jersey City for alleged violation of the Chinese exclusion law. The prisoners, who said they were Ching Tung and Yin Wah, were passengers on the Lehigh Valley express train from Buffalo. They had berths in the Pullman sleeping car. They were taken before United States Commissioner Romaine and were held to await examination. It is alleged that they were smuggled across the border and were to be taken to a place in New York where Chinese immigrants are received and obtain employment.

WAY PARTITION CHINA.

Powers Inclining to the Belief That Peace Is Impossible.

London, Dec. 7.—The Pekin correspondent of the Morning Post, in a dispatch dated Thursday, says the impression is growing among all the nationalities there that peace is impossible. It is believed that a resumption of the campaign in the spring is inevitable. The partition of the empire is regarded as the only solution of the trouble. The Daily News publishes the following from Nagasaki, dated December 4th: "The order to send 5,000 Russian troops back to Odessa has been countermanded. They will remain in the far East until further orders." Mr. Choate had a special interview with Lord Lansdowne at the foreign office yesterday concerning China. A dispatch from Pekin, dated Wednesday, December 5th, says: "The filibustering character of the Kaigan and similar expeditions projected have given a very bad impression. There is danger of the Chinese regarding the allies as nothing more or less than Western brigands. Explanatory proclamations should be issued in regard to the expeditions in order, as far as possible, to diminish their harmful effects."

Yu Hsien Must Die.

Pekin, Dec. 7.—Dispatches were received here to-day confirming officially the statement made in these dispatches on December 1st that the Dawager Empress was willing to inflict the death penalty on Yu Hsien, the notorious anti-foreign governor of Shansi, who was responsible for the massacre of missionaries and native Christians in that province.

BOERS ATTACK A CONVOY.

De Wet's Men Kill 15 British and Wound 23.

London, Dec. 7.—General Kitchener, who is now Commander-in-Chief of the British forces in South Africa, has cabled the war office that 500 men belonging to the command of General De Wet made a determined attack on a British convoy that was proceeding from Pretoria to Rustenburg. The troops in charge of the convoy hastily took up a position to make a defense, but the Boers burned half of the convoy. Reinforcements for the British arrived and the Boers were then dispersed. The British lost fifteen killed and twenty-three wounded.

Think Ship Lost and Thirsty Dead.

Provincetown, Mass., Dec. 7.—The queen of the Provincetown Grand Banks fishing fleet, the Cora S. McKay, has been given up for lost, with all its crew of thirty residents of this town. Circumstances point to the ship's destruction at Virgin Rocks, on the Grand Banks, in the storm of Sept. 12.

CANCER

Sufferers from this horrible malady nearly always inherit it—not necessarily from the parents, but may be from some remote ancestor, for Cancer often runs through several generations. This deadly poison may lay dormant in the blood for years, or until you reach middle life, then the first little sore or ulcer makes its appearance—or a swollen gland in the breast, or some other part of the body, gives the first warning.

To cure Cancer thoroughly and permanently all the poisonous virus must be eliminated from the blood—every vestige of it driven out. This S. S. S. does, and is the only medicine that can reach deep-seated, obstinate blood troubles like this. When all the poison has been forced out of the system the Cancer heals, and the disease never returns.

Cancer begins often in a small way, as the following letter from Mrs. Shirer shows:

"A small pimple came on my jaw about an inch below the ear on the left side of my face. It gave me no pain or inconvenience, and I should have forgotten about it had it not begun to inflame and itch; it would bleed a little, then scab over, but would not heal. This continued for some time; when my jaw began to swell, becoming very painful. The cancer began to eat and spread, and it was as large as a half dollar when I heard of S. S. S. and determined to give it a fair trial, and it was remarkable what a wonderful effect it had from the very beginning; the sore began to heal and after taking a few bottles disappeared entirely. This was two years ago; there are still no signs of the Cancer, and my general health continues good."—MRS. S. SHIRER, La Plata, Mo.

S. S. S. is the greatest of all blood purifiers, and the only one guaranteed purely vegetable. Send for our free book on Cancer, containing valuable and interesting information about this disease, and write our physicians about your case. We make no charge for medical advice.

BILL TO INCREASE THE ARMY PASSED

MEASURE DIVIDES MEMBERS OF HOUSE ON PARTY LINES.

Vote is 166 to 133—Motion by McClellan to Recommit is Overwhelmingly Defeated—Two Republicans Unite with the Opposition in the Latter Proposition.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 7.—The house of representatives, after considering the army reorganization bill two days, passed it by a vote of 166 to 133. A heated discussion was precipitated by an amendment offered by Representative Littlefield (Me.), and finally adopted, embodying the recommendations of the W. C. T. U. for the abolition of the canteen.

Representative Fitzgerald (Mass.) attempted to have the amendment broadened so as to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquor upon government property. The house divided almost on party lines. Representative McCall (Mass.), who is opposed to the administration on everything connected with expansion and colonial policy, was the only Republican who voted in the negative. Three Democrats—Representatives Clayton and Underhill (N. Y.) and Hall (Pa.)—broke away from party lines and voted with the Republicans in favor of the bill.

Several Amendments Adopted.

The sections of the bill designed to retire Gen. Shafter as a major-general and Gen. Fitch as a brigadier-general were stricken out. Among the amendments adopted were those providing for fifty volunteer surgeons and 150 assistant surgeons for service in the Philippines, for thirty dental surgeons and for a veterinary corps with actual rank. The officers of the pay corps were increased eleven and of the signal corps twenty-three. The age limit was removed from volunteer officers eligible to appointments as first and second lieutenants and the provision for retiring officers who served in the civil war as of the next higher grade was stricken out.

Bill Reported and Passed.

This completed the bill, which was then reported to the house, where Mr. McClellan (N. Y.) moved to recommit the bill, with instructions to report back a bill extending the present law until July 1, 1903. The motion was lost, 64 to 248. Two Republicans—Mr. McCall (Mass.) and Mr. Mann (Ill.)—voted with sixty-six members of the opposition for the motion. Many Democrats voted with the Republicans against the motion. A roll call was demanded for the final passage of the bill. The bill was passed, 166 to 133, and the house adjourned.

THE OLEO BILL GOES OVER But is Made a Special Order on the House Program.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 7.—By unanimous consent of the house the oleomargarine bill, which was to have been discussed and voted on, was displaced for a day, when it will have precedence over all other legislation. The postponement was asked for and granted to enable the committee of the whole to continue discussion of the army bill.

The postponement occurred immediately after the opening of the session. An effort had been made to reset the bill for Saturday, when the attendance is usually light, but the dairy interests were quick to object to this proposition and as unanimous consent is needed to postpone they easily forced the oleo men to terms.

Congressman Tawney of Minnesota, who is leading the fight for the Groat bill, said that a large and exceedingly active lobby was on hand to defeat the Groat bill. The dairy interests are represented by ex-Gov. Hoard of Wisconsin, Charles Y. Knight of Chicago, secretary of the National Dairy union, and dairy and food commissioners from several states.

The railroads have won their fight against the Cullom bill so far as this session is concerned, according to reports on the situation today from the interstate commerce commission and Senator Cullom. It was the expectation of the shippers of the country through their national organizations and representatives now in Washington, to have the Cullom bill, which is now on the senate calendar, placed on the list of measures to be acted on at this session, and they based their hope on the fact that Senator Cullom is a member of the senate steering committee. But the senator said today that there was no likelihood of getting his bill up for discussion.

The absence of any reference in the president's message to increasing the power of the interstate commerce commission caused talk among supporters of the Cullom bill. It was suggested that the administration had decided to leave this struggle entirely to the two great interests involved.

Amend Ship Subsidy Bill.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 7.—The Senate Committee on Commerce held its first meeting of the session. The meeting was devoted mainly to the consideration of the ship subsidy bill and to amendments suggested by Chairman Frye. The amendment requiring vessels clearing for foreign ports to carry cargo amounting to 50 per cent of their carrying capacity was adopted by the committee.

Methodists Report Progress.

New York, Dec. 7.—The annual report of the work of the board of education of the Methodist Episcopal church has just been made here. Bishop Andrews of New York presided. Joseph S. Stout, treasurer, represented a report showing that the amount of money loaned directly to students in the last year was $81,794. The students aided numbered 1,830. The report of the corresponding secretary, William F. McDowell, showed that at the beginning of the century the schools of the Methodist Episcopal church were accurately represented by Bishop Fowler's dramatic phrase, "the ashes of one college," but that at present the Methodist church has an investment of more than $30,000,000 in schools and colleges, and that the church has added to the permanent funds devoted to education an average of nearly $500,000 a year during the last seventy years.

Pays Tribute to Franklin.

Paris, Dec. 7.—A compliment was paid to the memory of Benjamin Franklin in today's Petit Parisien, a republican organ owned by M. Dupuy, minister of agriculture, in three columns devoted to a flattering description of Franklin's essential traits and his mission to France, which it says resembles Kruger's recent undertaking. "Franklin," says the paper, "was one of those great men whom democracies must learn to know, love, be proud of and offer as an example to succeeding generations."

NICE BABY

All babies are "nice," to their mothers.

We all love children. Great big men, with hard hands, have soft hearts for helpless new-comers to earth with the smile of heaven fresh on their innocent faces. No man is too high or low, too proud or humble, too busy or idle, too good or bad, too great or small—except a few very small mean men—to throw up their hats at the sight of a plump little cherub; or to pity a thin one.

Plumpness and thinness are accidents. Nature is bountiful; parents want to be. Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil corrects their mistakes.

We'll send you a little to try if you like.

Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. Susanna M. D. Fry. Recording Secretary—Mrs. Clara C. Hoffman. Assistant Recording Secretary—Mrs. Frances E. Beauchamp. Treasurer—Mrs. Helen M. Barker. A delegation of the Woman's Christian Temperance union, now in session in Washington, and others interested in temperance work were given a full hearing by the house committee on insular affairs in advocacy of Representative Littlefield's bill prohibiting the sale of liquor, opium and intoxicants to aboriginal tribes and native races in the Pacific islands.

BOWLDER KILLS THREE MEN.

Fatal Fall of Rock in the World-Herald Mine, Missouri.

Aurora, Mo., Dec. 7.—Oliver Bertram, Oscar Moore and James Dodson are dead and Bob Clevenger and Oscar Elliott are seriously injured as the result of a fall of rock in the World-Herald mine. A large bowlder fell from the roof of the mine, crushing the three men beneath it, killing them instantly. The crew which had just left the mine had discharged some heavy shots, and it is thought these loosened the bowlder. The men killed were all spade hands and were engaged at the time in loading tubs at the head of the drift, some distance from the main shaft. The injured men will probably recover.

Non-Union Men Found Guilty.

Atchison, Kas., Dec. 7.—Douglass Reneer, a non-union workman, who in June last, killed Cal T. Oathout and James Barthett, union workmen, as the result of a labor quarrel, was today found guilty of murder in the first degree. His punishment will be life imprisonment, as capital punishment does not prevail in Kansas.

Urges a Reciprocity Treaty.

Santo Domingo, Dec. 7.—An extra session of the Santo Domingo congress was opened yesterday. President Jimenez's message recommends a reciprocity treaty with the United States and concessions for railroad in Barahona and Monte Cristi.

Georgia Cayvan Is Better.

New York, Dec. 7.—At Sandford hall, Flushing, where the once brilliant actress Georgia Cayvan is now suffering from nervous prostration, it was said today that she had passed a quiet night and was doing well.
